

Training Anytime, Anywhere

CW vBooks

It's all in the Cloud!

COST SAVINGS

Today's business demands require your employees, partners and customers to be educated on your company's product and service offerings in a streamlined, efficient manner. CW vBooks is today's cost effective alternative to costly face to face engagements.

Cloud computing is the future of IT and learning in the cloud is the future of training.

At CompuWorks, we're already there.

With CW vBooks you create, distribute and update training content without costly fees through our hosted, state of the art digital solution. Whether you record your own training or use content from the hundreds of hours of training CompuWorks created using the best subject matter experts in their industries, users have constant access to the training they need. Because the recorded content is searchable, users watch and learn only the material they need and don't waste time sitting through content previously mastered.

SEARCHABLE

Finding the information you need quickly and effectively is crucial. The philosophy behind CW vBooks is to show, rather than tell. They are "always on," offering users a searchable repository of information that's accessible anytime, anywhere through an available high speed internet connection.

90% cost reduction from traditional, instructor-led training

CW vBooks create indexed, searchable virtual content from a variety of digital formats: text, graphics, images, audio and full motion video content. It's a cost effective solution that is available 24x7 and is accessible anywhere that you have internet access.

- Provide up-to-date content
- Utilize the best instructors
- Include both visual and auditory materials
- Indexed and searchable content
- Over 8 subtitled languages
- Availability on most mobile devices
- Create custom titles

CREATE YOUR OWN

Your ability to train customers, educate and capture your organization's knowledge, and keep your partners informed on new solutions in real-time is imperative in today's work environment. CW vBooks enable you to productize your training offerings so you create content once and make it accessible by many.

